

لَقَدْ بَانَ النَّوْذَانِ غَفَلْنَا وَآخَذَ الْخَطُّ مِنْ بَاقِي الشَّيْءِ

لَيْسَ فِي الْحُبِّ مَشُورَةٌ وَلَا فِي الشَّهْوَانِ خُصُومَةٌ ۝ أَبْوَابُ
الْمُلُوكِ مَعَادِنُ الْحَاجَاتِ وَلَيْسَ لَا سِتِّجَاحًا إِلَّا الْقَبْرُ وَ
الْمَلَا زِمَةٌ ۝ مَثَلُ الْكَاتِبِ كَالِدٌ وَلَا يَبَادُ إِذَا تَعَطَّلَ يَكْسِرُهُ
وَمَنْ كَلَامُهُ مَا رَأَيْتُ أَقْرَبَ رِضًا مِنْ سَخَطٍ وَلَا أَسْرَعَ مَبَايِرَ
بَيْنَ قَرِيبٍ وَبَعْدٍ مِنَ الْمُلُوكِ وَكَأَن يَقُولُ قَدْ صَنَعْتُ أَمِيرُ الْمُلُوكِ

تجزي فنيك خطيبك

Arabic Manuscript
Written by Abubakr Rāshid
A.H. 1195 = A.D. 1780

Consists of extracts from the Traditional Sayings. The first two lines are in Thuluth and the rest in Naskh. The colophon gives the writer and date. Among the Sayings are: "Respect those above you and compassionate those beneath you." "The best friend is he who guides you to that which is good." "Two things are unappreciated until they have passed away - health and youth."

Consists of extracts from the Traditional Sayings ; the two first lines being written in Thiluth and the remainder in Naskh. Among the latter are the sayings, "Respect those above you and compassionate those beneath you." "The best friend is he who guides you to that which is good." "Two things are unappreciated until they have passed away, health and youth." The colophon reads: "Written by Abubakr Râshid, A.H. 1195 = A.D. 1780."

AC9